

CALL FOR VISITING RESEARCHERS

DEADLINE: 27/09/2018

Ghent University, host of the Governance in Conflict Network, is now welcoming applications for visiting PhD and postdoctoral researchers to join us for a short term research stay (1 to 3 months) in 2018.

WE OFFER:

- full access to Ghent University facilities, and working space within the offices of one of Ghent University's network members
- travel to and from Belgium will be covered by us
- housing in Ghent will be provided through University facilities OR private housing costs will be subsidised
- a monthly stipend will be provided to researchers without financial support from their home institution

WHAT WE EXPECT FROM YOUR DURING THE RESEARCH STAY:

- Prepare a publication of a peer reviewed journal article or book chapter
- OR, preparation of a joint research proposal with one or more Ghent University partners
- OR, give a series of lectures while in Ghent

HOW TO APPLY?

Send the following documents to gicnetwork@ugent.be:

- a CV
- a proposal of your plans during this research stay (1000 words), linking your research to a UGent network partner

We particularly encourage researchers from the Global South to apply.

For more information please contact us at gicnetwork@ugent.be